Dear Sirs,

Thank you for your report.

We are of the view that liability is not is CNB driver's favour as he was going straight at the left-turn only lane and resulted the collision.

You may proceed to send CNB vehicle for repair.

Hsiao Tong,

Attached is the repair quotation and photos of the damage to our vehicle.

Will it be of interest to LKK or third party to do the pre-repair inspection before we send it for repairs.

Thank you

Dear CNB colleagues,

I refer to the emails below from M/s Arco Law dated 28 and 29 August 2024.

We note that the vehicle no. SLL 9132M belongs to CNB and wish to bring your attention to their pre-repair inspection notice stated below which requires you to revert within 2 working days. You may wish to reply to them as soon as possible.

We would also appreciate it if you can let us have an update on CNB's point of contact for such reference in future.

Thank you.

Regards,

Felicia CHAN

Dear Grace,

We refer to your email below dated 28 August 2024.

2. Please be informed that with effect from 1 April 2023, the Attorney-General's Chambers no longer handles motor accident claims by default, regardless of whether the claim is for personal injury and/or property damage.
3. To ensure that your Notice reaches the correct Ministry/Agency, could you please provide additional details or specific identifiers about the vehicle? With this information, we can help determine the appropriate Ministry/Agency to forward your Notice to.
4. For future motor accident claims, please send all correspondence directly to the relevant Ministry/Agency.
5. If you do not know which Ministry/Agency owns the vehicle in question, you may conduct a vehicle ownership search at the Land Transport Authority's website.
6. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing herein should be construed as an admission or acceptance of liability in any way on the part of the Government. All the Government's rights are expressly reserved.
7. Thank you.
