Brief Details.

I Was going downhill until i approached a gantry entrance that has a car at the stop line, i thought he will be giving way to me as there was a stop line intended for him, when i was approaching nearer he went out and due to lack of time to react i bang at the right side of his car bumper, there were 2 witness one is a passer by going home he also have the footage of the accident and one witness which is a hawker center worker at the opposite end of the road. Everything has been done according to old fashion way such as exchanging particular and i went ahead to call 999 to assist me what to do next. Traffic Police didnt came down because there were no serious injury sustained yet, the moment i head home i was feeling giddy and alot of pain, i decided to tell my parents and they brought me to the hospital, first thing in mind was i have a week of Medical leave and i straight away go to the police station.
