CIRCUMSTANCE OF ACCIDENT

ACCIDENT ALONG LOYANG AVE 2 LANE ROAD ON 27.6.2024 @7.10AM

I was driving along Loyang Ave (2 lane road) on 27 June 2024 at around 7.10am, in the left lane. When nearing Bus Stop 98061 (Opp Engine Test Facility), I noticed a white Toyota HiAce (CB8170T) coming out from Loyang Way 4. I checked my right to ensure there were no vehicles behind my vehicle on my right, then changed from the left lane to the right lane. I did this intending to make way for the Toyota HiAce (CB8170T) to exit from Loyang Way 4 onto the left lane of Loyang Ave. However, as I was nearing the Toyota HiAce (CB8170T), I realized the driver coming out of Loyang Way 4 did not turn into the left lane, but was coming into the right lane (i.e. the lane I was in) of Loyang Ave. I immediately applied my brakes, but the driver continued turning into my lane, and I emergency braked.

I managed to stop in time. However, the Toyota HiAce (CB8170T) continued to move into my lane, thus causing a collision. There was no traffic held up in front of the yellow box at all times.

The driver of the Toyota HiAce (CB8170T) shifted the vehicle back to the left lane and stopped. He got out and approached me. I was checking on my passenger, who had sustained a bruise on her left chest area below her shoulder. The driver of the Toyota HiAce (CB8170T) reported that there were no injuries from anyone in his vehicle. A motorcyclist, Nas Amin (contact no. 9100 8967), came over to check on me and informed me that he witnessed the incident. He messaged me later to say the Toyota HiAce (CB8170T) did not give way to oncoming traffic (i.e. my vehicle). The driver of the Toyota HiAce (CB8170T) told me that he first saw me travelling on the left lane, and drove onto Loyang Ave wanting to go to the right lane.

My vehicle's left mirror, left front tyre, left headlights and surrounding body of the car were damaged. The left front door cannot be closed properly.
