Dear Sir/Madam,

I refer to your letter dated 4 April 2016 and with reference to the claim being made against vehicle SJV9385X.

It is our position that there is no valid claim and that the injury to the other vehicle was so minor as to make this claim spurious.

We have attempted to deal with this without involving AXA but the bus company involved has made such an extortionate and ridiculous demand for funds in relation to the tiny level of alleged damage that we consider it sensible to have you deal with this on our behalf.

I attach two photographs of the alleged damage. We have no police report or any other evidence. I did however make a statement to your reporting centre at Pandan Road on March 17th which should have been supplied to you.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Yours faithfully,

Alice Clark-Platts
