Brief Details.

On 13/10/2016 at about 2220hrs, I was driving my taxi (SHD377Y) with a passenger in the back, along Jurong West Street 64. I was approaching the traffic light junction and was travelling on the right lane of the two lane road. The signal was still green in my favour and I continued to drive straight. As I was crossing the junction, another vehicle (SKA6228L) from the opposite lane made a right turn and collided into the front right side of my taxi. I did not see the vehicle until the impact. My vehicle came to a stop and I got down of my vehicle and made a check on my passenger. I felt severe pain at my neck area and was unable to move much after that. I was subsequently conveyed to Ng Teng Fong General Hospital where I was kept under observation and subsequently discharge and given 4 days of medical leave.
