CONTINUATION OF REPORT

Brief Details:

On 24/05/2017 at about 4.30pm, when I enter the guardhouse's car park to exchange pass, I observed that there was no other vehicle. After exchanging the pass, I did a 3 point turn using my vehicle (bearing registration plate number: G8E7564T) at car park outside of the guardhouse of Amoy Queen Camp. Before I did the said turn, I made a check on my vehicle's mirror and observed that there is no other vehicle behind me. As such, I continue to do my turn. While doing the turn, I noticed that I had hit onto a civilian vehicle (bearing registration plate number: G8E7564T). Subsequently, I stopped my vehicle to make a check. Both me and the said driver exchanged particulars. No one injured and no government property damaged. My vehicle does not sustain any damages while the civilian vehicle sustained slight damages.

I, S9632484G, LCP MD SUFI SYAFIEE BIN RASULL was driving MID33229 Landrover. I was tasked to go to Amoy Quee Camp to drive the vehicle back to Khatib Camp. So after my detail end, I gave my camp pass to my vehicle commander so that he can change it while I was taking care of the vehicle. So the second Landrover passed the camp pass to my vehicle commander to change it. So we drove to the guardroom to alight my vehicle commander to change, the second landrover parked beside me. Soon as we collected our 11b, the second landrover was the first to make the 3 point turn. As they reverse, I heard a loud sound coming from the vehicle and unfortunately, they met with an accident and banged into the civilian lorry. I seriously unsure that the civilian lorry was there in the first place. This is all I have to say
