CONTINUATION OF REPORT

Brief Details.

On 23rd October 2017 at about 2220hrs, I was driving my taxi along PIE and was heading towards Changi Airport. I had a passenger in my taxi at the time. I was driving along the first lane. Somewhere before Jalan Eunos exit, I saw that there was a black Toyota car slowing down ahead. I followed suit and before my taxi could make a complete stop, suddenly a car hit my taxi from the rear.

The force from that hit caused my car to move forward and hit the front black Toyota's rear. I turned around to check on my passenger. He complained of giddiness from the accident. I also felt giddy from the accident and remained in the taxi. Someone came and opened my door. I slowly exited my taxi still feeling giddy. I slowly examined my taxi's damages and my taxi suffered dents on the front and rear. The Traffic Police arrived shortly later.

One of the driver's wife informed me to look behind to see that it was another cars fault in this. I turned behind and saw there was a black Suzuki car followed by a red Mercedes. The wife of the Suzuki car driver inform me that they have already stopped their car when the red Mercedes crashed into the rear of their car causing a chain reaction which ends up with me hitting onto the rear of the black Toyota. I only exchanged numbers with the Suzuki driver (Mr Toh) and the Mercedes driver (Mr Loh).

Moments later, the ambulance arrived and attended to my passenger first and conveyed him to hospital. The subsequent ambulance arrived and conveyed me to Changi General Hospital A&E. I was admitted to the waiting area when I thought that I was fine. I requested to return home only to realize that I was not fully recovered. I felt uncomfortable around my neck the whole night and was unable to sleep well at night. I went to the nearby clinic where the doctor provided me with 2 days medical leave.

An investigation officer from the traffic police tried contacting me however at that time I was not feeling well. The officer informed me that he will call me and that it was not necessary of me to call him.
