Dear Jaclyn,

We refer to your below email.

Please be informed that TP owner changed workshop. From Premium Cars, now, TP owner brought the vehicle to PERFORMANCE MOTORS LTD.

As liability was unclear, we are yet to receive any evidence from claimant.

Thank you.

Dear Vic,

As spoken, I have called and spoken to OI.

She wants to know what the COR and LOU amounts are before she can make her decision.

As such do let me have the numbers as soon as you have them so that I can advise her accordingly and let you know the outcome of my conversation with her.

Thank you.

Dear Jaclyn,

We refer to your below email.

We had just spoken to the Insured and was informed the same. However, she still insisted that she is not liable and doesn't want to settle the claim even at 50/50.

She insisted to have an investigator go to the location with her so she can explain further the circumstances that she is not liable of the accident.

Kindly advise and for your further instructions please.

Thank you.

Hi Vic,

As spoken, please advise insured that if she does want us to reject the claim, we can do so, however this does not mean that TP will not pursue the claim on legal means.

In any case, we will still be liable to pay based on conflicting versions.

Do let me know what she says and I will follow up from there.

Thank you.

Dear Jaclyn,

We refer further to our below email.

This is a conflicting version where both party confirmed that they do not have evidence to prove their version of the accident.

Our Insured reported that TP was exiting from minor road while TP reported that while within the leftmost lane, Insured encroached into its lane.

We had spoken to the Insured where she strongly denied any liability. Her claim against TP was rejected, according to her repairer. As such, she would like the TP claim to be rejected as well.

Please advise further instructions.

Thank you.

Dear All,

We refer to the below email.

Please be informed that we had spoken to the Insured and addressed her concern regarding the reserved amount.

However, she strongly denied liability as she is adamant that she is not at fault. OI has no evidence to support her version.

TP repairer also confirmed they have no evidence to support their client's versions.

We will be writing to the CSE for further instructions on this matter.

Thank you.
