Dear Poh Kin,

Note that the witness statement stated OIV cut into the lane. However, the statement did not state whether the taxi was travelling along the the 2nd lane or changing lane. There is no dispute to OIV changing lane as OI has reported so.

The witness statement is inconclusive and did not support TP's version.

Thank you.

Best regards,
Loh Chee Heng

Dear Chee Heng,

ROAD TRAFFIC ACCIDENT INVOLVING VEHICLE NOS. SKD 6777B (OI) AND SHD 914Y (TP) ON 28/11/2017

We refer to the above matter.

Apologies for the delay on this matter.

OI reported that she was driven along Jalan Bukit Merah and changing lane from third lane from right to second lane from right and side swipe with TP while TP also changing lane from extreme right lane to second lane from right. We did clarify with OI (Ms Patricia) the nature of the accident and she have no evidence to support her version, she agree to let Insurance company settle the matter at best and aware that NCD (if any) would be affected.

Third party reported that he driven along second lane from right of Jalan Bukit Merah, suddenly our Insured swerved into his lane and collided into his taxi left side front portion.

Both party have no scene photo and video footage, however TP submitted witness statement to us.(passenger on board/not SD)

In view of TP witness statement is not statutory declaration, passenger on board of the taxi, Trans-Cab, we seek your comments/instruction in advance for us to proceed further.

Best Regards,
