Brief details.

On 26/07/2017 at about 1845hrs, I was driving my vehicle bearing plate number GBB2494K along the most left lane of Rivervale Dr. While I was approaching the right turn pocket, I noticed a taxi bearing plate number SHA4501U in front of me engaged emergency break. I managed to stop my vehicle in time and avoided a collision by turning my vehicle to the left. At the point of time, the right turn arrow was still green. Therefore, I overtook the taxi on the left and stopped in front of his vehicle when the traffic light turned red.

After which, when the traffic light turned green, I inch out my vehicle to the right turn pocket and stopped to allow the oncoming traffic to pass. However, the taxi behind me started honking repeatedly. Thus, I moved my vehicle to the left to allow him to pass. I then followed the taxi from behind entered the straight road, the taxi started to jam his brakes intermittently, which in my opinion was dangerous as it might cause an accident.

Thereafter, he stopped his vehicle and kept stationary and refused to move even though there were no traffic. Subsequently, the driver of the taxi alighted and took photos of my vehicle and kept on laughing. I got tired of his prank and as such, returned to my vehicle and drove off.

I suspect that he might try to make some claims on me. I am lodging this report for my record purposes. No assault or threat took place.
