Dear Zaini

Thank you for engaging Traffic Police. We would like to inform you that the issues raised come under the purview of LTA. We will, by copy of this mail, refer your request to them for their attention and reply to you.

Should you wish to contact LTA directly on the matter, please refer to their email address at feedback@lta.gov.sg. Alternatively, you can call their hotline at 1800-2255-582.

2 I will also like to take this opportunity to share with you our Police website where you will be able to access information related to our road safety initiatives and efforts. (<http://www.police.gov.sg/resources/traffic-matters> ) Through the Police website, you can also find out more on a wide range of Police e-services available for the convenience of our public.

3 You probably would have already come to know of our “Use Your RoadSense” movement. Through this road safety initiative, we do hope to garner the community to come together and raise their awareness on road safety while commuting on the roads. If you have a Facebook account, do ‘like’ the page and journey with us on this quest for safer roads. Once again, thank you for writing in to us. Have a great day.
