Dear Janet,

We refer further to our below email.

TP driver reported on his report that he was driving along when he heard a bang on his vehicle and realised that Insured vehicle had hit his rear left corner.

Insured driver reported that he was driving along Scotts Road at the leftmost lane when he found that TP vehicle cut into his lane from the right, so the Insured driver had tried to avoid, when suddenly, TP vehicle came ahead and purposely hit his vehicle while he is making a right lane change due to a bus ahead of him.

We had spoken to the Insured's PIC on the update of their claim against TP insurer, but till date, no update yet was provided by their repairer. We were also provided with a copy of the Insured's video footage. Please refer to the attached footage for your reference.

We are of the view that our Insured driver is not totally at fault for this matter. TP driver had forced it's way to our Insured's lane twice.

As such, we intend to reject the TP claim.

For your approval and/or further instructions please.

Thank you.

Best Regards,
