Brief Details.

On the above-mentioned date, time and place, I had ended work and was heading home. I was driving my car (VRN: SJV3891R) along Bukit Timah Expressway (BKE) towards Woodlands. Before the Rifle Range Road Overpass, the car (VRN: SLR1184J) in front of me, a white Nissan Pulsar suddenly did heavy braking. I then applied emergency brake as well and at that point in time, my car did not come into contact with the Pulsar. I then felt a collision from the rear and this collision pushed my car forward. The car behind me was a black Honda Civic (VRN: SJS1825L). I then alighted from my car and went to the rear to check the damages. There were damages to my rear bumper and boot. The driver of the Nissan Pulsar informed me that there were some paint chips off his rear bumper which is due to my car having a slight contact with his.

No police or ambulance was called to the scene. As no one was injured, we exchanged phone numbers and left the scene.

When I got home, I felt pain on my back. Hence, I went to see a doctor in the morning of 11/01/2018 and was given 3 days MC. That's all.
