DESCRIBE CIRCUMSTANCES OF THE ACCIDENT

On 16-01-18, I was travelling along Holland Road towards Clementi Road. I queued up behind cars to turn right into 6th Avenue. In my police report, I stated I was the second car, but actually I was the third. The accident had caused me trauma as it was a very hard hit. The light turned green for the turning lane. The cars in the opposite direction and from 6th Avenue had stopped. The car in front of me turned and I followed behind him after checking all cars in opposite direction had stopped. Out of nowhere suddenly, a car came in the direction towards Holland Village and rammed my car on the side. My car then swerved to opposite lane. The other car (B) swerved into 6th Avenue. I was in shock for about 3 seconds. I opened my car door and dropped to the floor. I then got up and asked the driver why he beat the red light, he said it was amber, wasn't red. Road lights were broken along that road. The damage to my car was irreparable. I made a police report & saw a doctor who referred me to a specialist for injuries on my neck, back & legs.
