Brief Details.

On 13/01/2018 at about 1810hrs, I was driving along Lane 1 of Braddell Road near Peck San Theng towards Bishan Flyover. A vehicle (SLK3407R) was in front of my vehicle signaling right but the driver drove to the left lane and drove back to my lane coming to a complete stop along the divider of Bishan Flyover.

I slowed my vehicle as I was afraid that the mentioned vehicle would overtake me instead, as such my vehicle was banged by another vehicle (GBC7948E) which was travelling behind me, causing my vehicle's rear screen and boot damaged badly. However the red vehicle did not stop to take a look and drove off to Bishan Flyover. But I felt that the red vehicle had caused the accident. There were in-car camera footages saved. My vehicle was then towed away.

Both of us exchanged particulars and agreed to settle the matter with the insurance company.

I wish to state that there was no Government property damaged but my helper seated at the rear passenger seat suffered a neck injury and was brought to Khoo Teck Puat Hospital. She was examined by the doctor at Khoo Teck Puat Hospital and informed that she suffered muscle strained and need to stay at home for observation and rest.

On 14/01/2018 at about 0700hrs, my helper vomited and informed that her vision was blur for distant sight. Both my 4th and 5th finger are strained and the pain comes on and off. At this point of time, I do not feel much pain and will seek the doctor if needed to. My son was seated at the front passenger seat and he seemed alright.
