Dear Tiara,

This is a case where your client attempted to make a right turn at X junction and collided into our insured going straight vehicle. Under BOLA, turning vehicle (your client) should exercise caution and more liable for the accident.

However, due to having no conclusive evidence and considering of your claim, we therefore made reasonable offer to you as below accordingly.

Kindly let's have your evidence to prove the your client is not liable. We will review the matter upon hearing from you.

Best Regards,

Zayer | Case Handler
