Dear Vic,

It may be difficult for insured to be absolved from liability in this merging lanes accident. TP report stated OIV which was on the left suddenly swerved into TP's lane. Though insured may insist that OIV was ahead of TPV, but there is no evidence to prove insured's version.

Nevertheless, you may proceed as suggested to reject claim based on your assessment, and then see the response from TP repairer.

Thank you.

Dear Chee Heng,

ACCIDENT INVOLVING VEHICLES SKD 8425D AND SHD 186G ON 03/02/2018

We refer to the above matter.

It was reported that by both drivers that the accident took place at the merging lane.

We had spoken to the Insured Mr Tan where he insisted that he is not at fault of this accident as all the while, he was ahead of TP vehicle on the merging lane.

Both parties have no further video footage and evidence to support their version of the accident except some photos taken by Insured after the shifted the vehicle at the road side (as attached email from OI).

In view of Insured being the vehicle ahead of TP vehicle and has the right of way, we would like to reject the TP claim.

For your approval and/or further instructions please.

Thank you.
