Brief Details.

On 8 February 2018 at about 1150hrs, I was driving my taxi along Bishan Street 21 on Lane 1 approaching the Junction of Marymount Road. As the traffic light was red, I stopped my vehicle behind another vehicle, which I cannot remember the make and model. Soon after, the traffic light turned green. As I was about to move off, I felt a hard knock at the rear of my vehicle. I then braked and exited my vehicle. I then sent my vehicle for servicing at Comfort Delgro Located at Sin Ming Drive.

I was then discharged with medication. On the same day, between 2100hrs to 2200hrs, I felt severe pain at my lower back of my neck and went back to Parkway East Hospital. I was then warded till 10 December 2018, where I was later discharged with 10 days of medical leave. My discharge summary from A&E indicated that "MRI
