Dear Gary,

We refer to your below email.

Our Insured Driver reported that he was within the lane when collided by your client's vehicle. Please refer to the below statement for your reference.

As such, we would like to request for any evidence your client have to support his version.

Thank you.

SKETCH PLAN

Brief Details.

On 09/02/2018 at about 2220hrs, I was driving my taxi bearing the plate number SHB9901K along Sungei Rd towards ECP. My taxi was stationary at the traffic junction of Sungei Rd and Jin Besar. Suddenly a silver taxi bearing the plate number SHD1847B collided onto the rear end of my taxi and the taxi continued to move to my right side. Which caused the right rear end of my bumper to be damaged as well. There was a vehicle bearing the plate number SJJ7302L which was about 3 to 4 car length behind me. The driver told me that the in car camera footage in his vehicle had capture the accident and he was willing to be my witness if needed. However, after taking photos of the accident I felt pain on my chest and body. Hence, I sat in my taxi while I was waiting for the ambulance. Later on, I was conveyed to Tan Tock Seng hospital and I was given 4 days of MC. I was also contacted by a traffic police and the officer told me to lodge a police report and to report to Traffic Police HQ on Monday.

Dear Cynthia,

We refer to the subject matter.

Please be informed that we had spoken to the Insured's PIC Ms Wai Yin and we were informed that there claim against TP is still pending. They had rejected TP insurer offer of 50/50.

We had also confirmed with TP repairer that they do not have any evidence to support their client's version of the accident.

In view of Insured's driver statement that he was stationary within its lane, and TP driver statement which mentioned that both vehicles were changing towards the same lane at the time of accident, it is up to the claimant to provide concrete evidence to support his statement.

As such, we would like to deny the TP claim.

For your approval and/or further instruction please.

Thank you.
