Without Prejudice

Dear Aileen,

We refer further to our below email.

Purely for an amicable settlement on a without prejudice basis and without admission of liability to our Insured's part, we offer a global sum of $1,690.00 (all in) to settle your client's claim.

If agreeable, kindly chop and sign the attached DV and forward back a copy to us for payment processing.

Thank you.

"Please note that our above offer and any settlement arising from the above offer are made on a without prejudice basis, and should not be construed as an admission of liability on our part or on the part of our Insured Driver. Terms of such settlement should also not be disclosed in any other related matter(s) in respect of the accident. Our offer made in respect of this present matter is made solely to resolve this matter only. No reference shall be made to this offer or any settlement arising from this offer in any other related matters."

Best Regards,

WITHOUT PREJUDICE

Mr Vic Alpeh
M/s LKK Auto Consultants Pte Ltd

Kindly review subject case which has remained outstanding.

In your email dated 30 October 2017, you informed that you were still pending for approval/instruction from your Principal. You would follow up and get back to us. Despite repeated chasers [emails of 6 December 2017, 12 December 2017 and 5 January 2018], we have not to date received any reply.

Our taxi's sketch plan, scene photographs and damages sustained to both vehicles had supported our insured driver's version of the accident.

You informed in your email of 15 July 2014 that your Principal's instruction was to reject liability. This is not acceptable to us. In order to move forward, please arrange to let us have your Principal's consent by 8 February 2018 to escalate this case to GIA for resolution.

We look forward to hearing from you.

Best Regards
Aileen Tan
