I understand the rules in regards to this. For your information there are road work carry out that explain the slip road diverting out to the next available lane. There are no traffic controller and it is located at Clark Quay. Traffic is at a standstill and the front car have move leaving a gap which my vehicle proceed.. The car have already half exiting and there no reason why the taxi should acceleration. He should give way. If it a slow down situation, I would say he is gracious and I am wrong to exit.

I want to know the authority that govern all this claims.

Do update me.

All these I have written to lta too

Your sincerity
