Dear Stella,

We are unable to accept your reply & your insured report statement, my client's was traveling the road every day for her way home, she was driving in her lane, due to the front vehicle jam brake, she stop in time, but your insured following to close ? fast speed ? causing the accident to be happen, as he was trying to avoid and filter out to the right, as the result, knock into client's rear right side,

Kindly reconsider our client's third party claims, Please let us hear from you, Failing client's will consult & hand over the claims to her solicitors,

Dear David,

We refer to your email dated 02.03.2018.

Our insured reported that your client was making a lane change and caused the accident.

Therefore we are of the view that ONUS is on your client.

We regret to inform that we are unable to consider your claim.

Hope this clarifies.

Thank you.
