Brief Details.

With reference to T/20180112/2090. I received a letter from Traffic Police when I was discharged on the 26/01/2018 during night time and discovered it in my mailbox. Reference TP/IP/02563/2018 under Traffic Police Investigation Officer Daniel Yan Ming Sheng.

On the 12/01/2018 at about 0913hrs, I was riding my motorcycle V1)FBH8868U along Boon Lay Way near to Jurong Point and was driving Lane 3 on the most right lane of the 3 lane traffic.

From afar, I noticed a Van V2) GX1480G parked further up on the upper most left lane on the double yellow line near to the taxi stand, as I was approaching nearer I realize that V2 abruptly cut out from the most left lane and tried to swerve onto my lane which is on lane 3 without signaling, I then immediately sounded my horn to warn the driver of the imminent danger we were in however he continued to swerve out.

In order to avoid the collision, I then applied the emergency brakes of my motorcycle V1 and skidded as it was also raining to avoid a collision with V2. My vehicle V1 then and my right body parts including my leg and wrists was then dragged on the road for about a few kilometers before falling onto the ground. I then rolled onto the road and Passerbys then came over and rendered assistance.

The driver of V2 however just came down and had a look and did not bother to assist me, about 10 minutes later Traffic Police and Ambulance was at scene to assist and I was conveyed conscious to Ng Teng Fong General Hospital. There are CCTVS around the vicinity of the road that I believed might have captured what happen, I would like to comment that the driver of V2 was driving dangerously which caused me to skid.
