FACTS OF CASE:

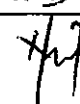

I am the owner and driver of the vehicle bearing registration number SJM 2236L which was involved in an accident on 18/03/18 at 0900 hours at North South Highway 146.7 km Pagoh heading off. I was driving from my home at Tampines. I was alone. I left my house at 0800 hours. I was travelling by PIE (Tuas) and left Singapore via the Tuas Checkpoint. I was driving at 110 kmph along the North South Highway (Malacca bound). I visit my son who stays in Malacca (Ayer Keroh) with my mother in law every weekend. I will normally drive on Saturday with my wife and younger son but at that time I was working on a Saturday. Hence I only went on Sunday morning. My wife and son did not follow me. The traffic was clear, road surface was dry and weather was clear.

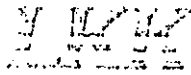

As I was approaching the Pagoh R&R, nearly 146.7 km mark, I was travelling in the 1st lane. Suddenly I saw a brown dog come out from the bushes on the centre divider. I jammed the brakes and made a hard steer to the left. The steering wheel locked. I couldn't control the car, the next thing I realized the car had overturned and entered the centre divider. I was still conscious. I checked myself for injuries. I had suffered abrasions and cuts on my arms. Both airbags were deployed. I quickly unbuckled my seat belt, opened the driver door and crawled out of the car. I stood some distance and waited to see if there was any fire since I saw some fuel leakage. I did not smell any burning smell. I then remained composed and tried to figure out which direction I was. The car had faced the oncoming traffic. By then the PLUS towing personnel had arrived as they were near the R&R. They cleared the car from the road and pulled it to the side. By then the police arrived followed by the ambulance and lastly the ambulance. Paramedics checked me and said I did not have serious injuries. They asked me to sign a form to not be conveyed to a hospital and left. Fire brigade arrived, checked the car and left since there was no fire. 2 police officers took my statement and gave me a copy of the police report. I took pictures of the accident scene and the car. I also took a video of the dog that crossed my path while the statement was being written. I did not even call for a tow truck. A towing personnel was ^{driving} ^{Extending} at the R&R. He asked me if I wanted to tow my car back to Singapore. He had his employee flip the car over and put it on the tow truck. All this was happening while I was making the police report. He waited till I was done with the report and said he needed RM1500 as payment. I went to the ATM at the R&R withdrew cash & paid him. The car was towed at around 2 hours post accident.

I called 3 people after the accident. My uncle from Klang, a friend from JB and another friend who is in Klang. Att 2 came to the accident location after the car was towed. Police was still there. I sat in my uncle's car and he drove me to my house in Ayer Keroh. My friend followed behind. I reached my house, left my belongings and my friend took me to the A&E as I started feeling pain in my neck. An x-ray was done and there was no fracture. So the doctor ordered an MRI. I did the MRI on Monday. ^{At that point,} The doctor confirmed that P4 and other muscles in my neck are torn. So I had to wear a neck brace for 6 weeks. I was given painkillers and nerve medication and 1 week of medical leave. I stayed in Malacca for 3 days.

I left Malacca on Tuesday 21/3/18. The car was towed to Sh Auto at Dett Lane and arrived there by 2200 hours on 18/3/18.

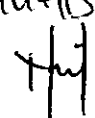

I wish to state that I did not consume any alcohol or take any medication that may cause drowsiness and impair my ability to drive.

I hereby wish to confirm that the above statement true and correct at the time it was written.
