Brief Details.

On 24/03/2018, at about 1120hrs, I was travelling along AYE(city), on the right most lane, driving my BMW 320i, bearing registered plate number SKF9104M. There was not much car along the road, and the traffic was smooth at that point of time. I was driving past the Alexandra Road exit, when the car in front of me, a Mitsubishi Outlander, bearing registered plate number SKF147Z, stopped all of the sudden. I managed to break in time, however, the car behind me, one Toyota Corolla bearing registered plate number SLF6305H, couldn't and crashed into me, and the force pushed my vehicle forward and my vehicle collided into the one ahead. This resulted in a four car chain collision. The last vehicle involved was an ambulance, bearing registered plate number SJF2222K which collided into the third vehicle.

After the collision, I did not feel any pain and I managed to alight from my vehicle and made a check. All of the other drivers did the same thing as well. I had noted down the damages of my vehicle which were dent car bonnet, while my car boot was caved in. It was also when the driver in front of me informed that there was a vehicle that had actually came to a stop all of the sudden which caused him to apply emergency brake. He had no camera installed in his car, hence he couldn't retrieve the registered plate number of the vehicle. The other vehicles suffered damages to the front and rear of their vehicles as well.

Subsequently, I exchanged particulars with all of the drivers and left the scene on my own, as I had tested my vehicle and it was still in working condition. No one called for the police nor the ambulance. However, upon returning home after lunch at about 1500hrs, I felt pain in my lower back and hence I proceeded to Mount Elizabeth Hospital for a check up. The nurse informed me that the pain is due to the accident and sometimes symptom of injuries will only surface a few hours later. I was granted a total of 04 days of medical leave, ref. PNH4018024649001.
