Dear Hsiao Tong

We do not agree that your insured driver was absolved of liability. The video shows the taxi had already filtered to right and stopped, waiting for the front taxi to move. It was your insured who failed to keep a proper lookout and safety distance thus collided onto taxi's rear right.

Please review your position and revert.

Thank you.

Hi Cecilia,

We refer to the above matter.

Our principal had reviewed the matter and we regret to inform you that we have our principal instruction to reject your client's claim. Your client admitted that he filtered to the right lane where our insured driver was travelling. Thus both vehicles collided. The point of impact involving left front bumper corner of our vehicle and right rear fender & bumper of your taxi. If your client did not filter to the right, the collision is avoidable. Therefore, we are of the view that the proximate cause of accident is filtering lane without due care and ensure safety of traffic flow before doing so.

Thank you.
