Accident Sketch Plan Pg. 1

Accident Location:

The on-ramp to the P.I.E. (Tuas direction) coming from Eunos Link and Jalan Eunos in the Geylang area on Saturday, 7 April, 2018 at about 2.30pm.

Location Circumstances:

The on-ramp begins with three (3) lanes, the two (2) right-hand most of which come from Eunos Link and merge into one lane before entering the P.I.E. Merging arrow markings on the roadway indicate that lanes merge. Drivers are obliged, as they often are obliged on expressway on-ramps, to take turns merging as the two (2) lanes become one as the roadway narrows. Please find attached with these documents photos of the actual location, including merging arrow markings on the roadway.

According to the Singapore Traffic Police Force's Basic Theory Handbook, "Alternate vehicles from the two lanes have the right-of-way into the single lane." (Basic Theory Handbook Online Learning Portal, page 43, image 56)

Drivers are moving forward at a slow crawl due to lanes merging and heavy traffic and giving way to each other in alternating fashion. The driver in directly front of me in the center lane gave way to the driver ahead and coming from the right lane. The next driver coming from the right lane, and directly in front of me, gave way to this driver coming from his left. In turn, I gave way to this driver coming from the right accordingly because that driver was ahead of me and had the right-of-way. We all are giving way in alternating fashion, and it then was my turn. The Third Party, driving a tan-colored KIA (plate S1G4745C with a probationary license in the window) did not have the right-of-way in this case as he was behind and should have given way.

The Accident:

The Third Party, instead of stopping to give way in alternating fashion, suddenly accelerated after it was too late to pass by with enough room, and side-swiped my front corner with his left side. To be clear, there was not enough room at that point for the Third Party to pass safely even if my car had not been moving. There was only three (3) individuals who witnessed the accident: my wife, myself and the Third Party. All other individuals were passers-by after the fact.

The Third Party's action was not only inappropriate given the above Road Code for these circumstances, but it was also unpredictable, hazardous and reckless. However, the Third Party assumed no responsibility. Indeed, he attempted to blame me for an accident he could have easily avoided had he not been impulsive with his vehicle.
