Dear Veron,

We refer to the above.

The claimant is claiming ceramic coating at $1,850.60 in addition to the repair cost. A copy of their invoice is enclosed.

Kindly check with your surveyor and let us know if there was already ceramic coating before the accident and if so, is the amount claimed reasonable?

Thanks!

Based on the invoice date 10 June 2015, ceramic coating was done on the car before the accident.

Warmest regards,

*~~The amount~~ Ceramic coating was done for the whole car including leather seats for the amount of $1850.60.
As for the damages of the car during the accident was front and rear portion. In my opinion the ceramic coating for front and rear portion is a $900 - $1000.*
