Dear Thin Thin,

We refer to below, our client confirmed that he was stationary at that point of time and when the accident happen. Since your client mentioned in his report that while he moving out from parking lot, your client vehicle reversed and caused the collision. Can we have the evidence to prove your client's statement?

Thank You.

Dear Sharon,

Based on the photos taken, we are of the opinion that the dent to the rear right of your client's vehicle could not have been caused by our insured vehicle coming out from the carpark lot and hitting into it. The possibility is both vehicles were moving at the same time.

Our Insured also reported that while he moving out from parking lot, your client vehicle reversed and caused the collision. Enclosed herewith out insured report.

We are of the view that this is the case is under BOLA 24 (a), both vehicles should exercise caution.

Under such a circumstances, we maintain our stand, unless you have concrete evidence to prove otherwise.

Kindly note that this negotiation between parties on this matter is purely on a without prejudice basis with the sole intention of resolving the matter amicably without parties resorting to legal proceedings. No admission of liability, whatsoever, should be deemed / inferred from this negotiation of terms/settlement.

In the event of new evidence being discovered or subsequently produced by either party that will materially affect/influence on the issues of liability/damages, either party is not bound, thereafter, by the negotiation terms/settlement.
