An accident in the wee hours of Sunday morning (22 Oct) involving a sports car and a taxi left two people injured and both vehicles badly damaged.

The Singapore Police Force said they were alerted to an accident between a taxi and a car along Yishun Ave 1 towards Yishun Ave 8 at 3.39am on Sunday.

Photos posted on social media show a McLaren car on the pavement, almost completely destroyed, and extensive damage to the right rear side of the Comfort taxi.

Debris from the accident could be seen scattered all over the pavement and road.

Both the 56-year-old taxi driver and 27-year-old McLaren driver were taken to Khoo Teck Puat Hospital, said police.

The Singapore Civil Defence Force said it dispatched two ambulances to the scene, and sent a Chinese woman in her 50s and an Indian man in his 20s to the hospital.

Police investigations are ongoing.

Two injured in Yishun collision

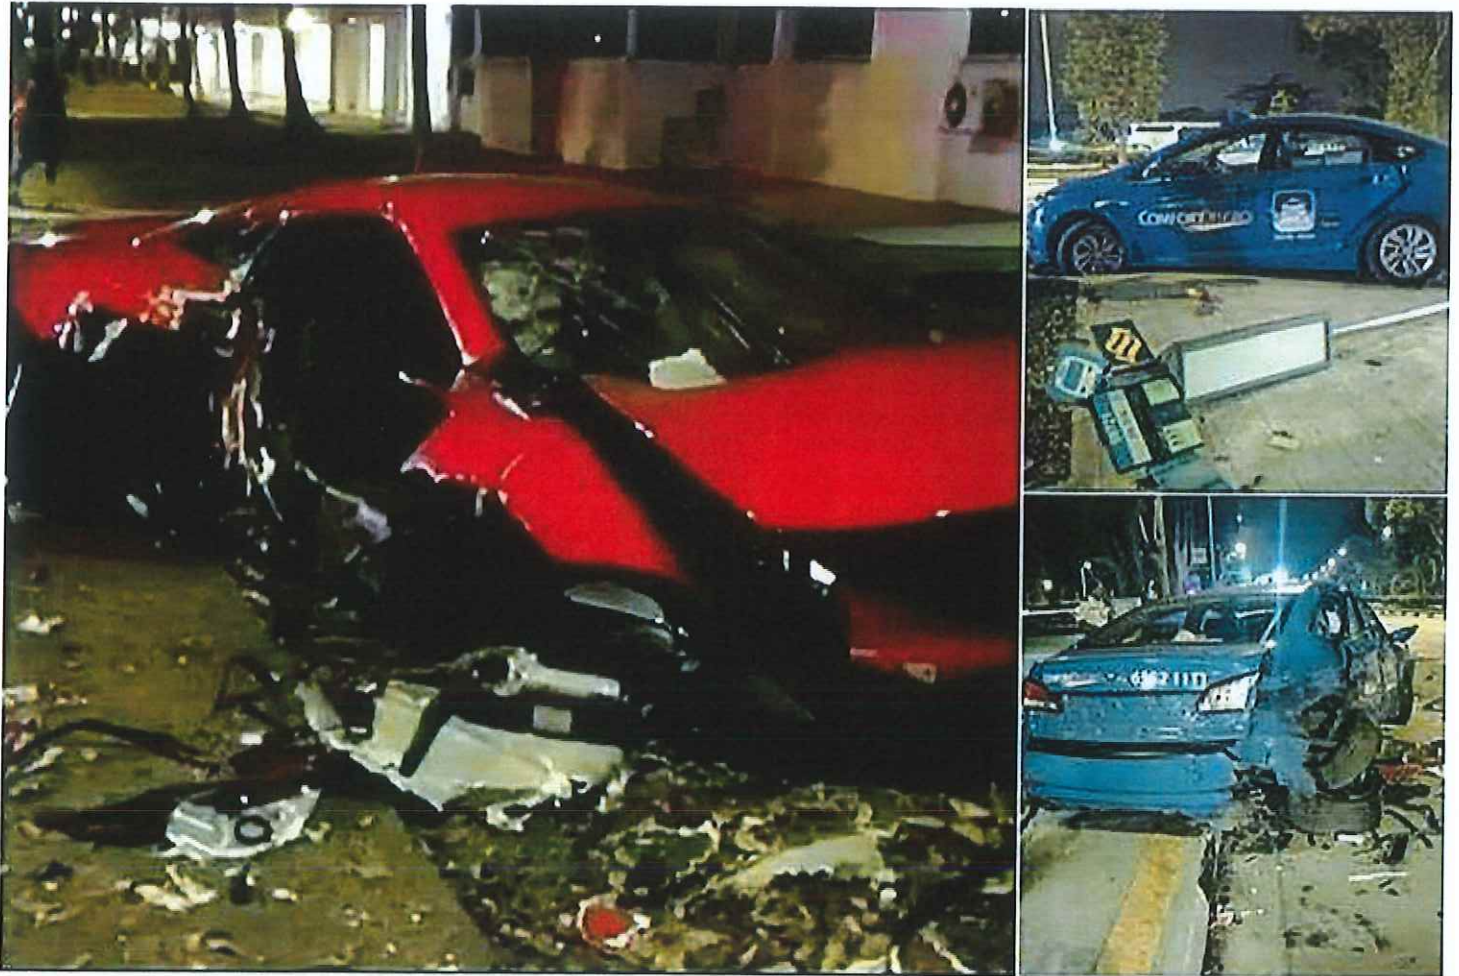

PHOTO: FACEBOOK

🕒 PUBLISHED 6 HOURS AGO

Two men were taken to hospital after a sports car and a taxi collided in Yishun early yesterday. Both vehicles were badly damaged in the accident along Yishun Avenue 1, as seen from photos and a video posted on social media. The red McLaren sports car was seen on the pavement with its right side completely wrecked, while the blue ComfortDelGro cab was spotted near a bus stop. Debris and the remains of a bus signpost were strewn around the cab. Police said the 56-year-old taxi driver and 27-year-old McLaren driver were both taken conscious to Khoo Teck Puat Hospital. The Singapore Civil Defence Force was alerted to the accident at 4am and dispatched two ambulances. Police investigations are ongoing.

Two drivers were injured after a McLaren and taxi were involved in an accident along Yishun Avenue 1 today (Oct 22).

Stomper Gary was passing by the scene of the accident and said that he saw two ambulances.

Stompers Ah Boy, Chengying both alerted Stomp to photos of the aftermath that had been posted in Singapore Taxi Driver's Facebook page.

Stomper Hadi shared more photos and videos of the accident that were circulating online.

The photos showed that both vehicles badly damaged. The metal frames of the vehicles looked like they had been ripped away.

In response to Stomp media queries, a police spokesman said that they were alerted to the accident involving a taxi and a car along Yishun Avenue 1 towards Yishun Avenue 8 at 3.59am.

A 56-year-old male taxi driver and a 27-year-old car driver were conscious when taken to Khoo Teck Puat Hospital.

Police investigations are ongoing.
