WITHOUT PREJUDICE
SAVE AS TO COSTS

Dear Johnson,

We ref to your e-mail on 03/11/18 and the attached witness statement.

We just want to clarify if your witness is a co-worker or a fellow worker of the claimant driver as he mentioned "my colleague" in his statement (in yellow below).

I, Muhd Rafce @ Vickneswaran s/o Ramu of NRIC number S8526704C under the employment of Spectra-Teknik (S) Pte Ltd. I was the attendant with Mr Xu Guangli on 18 May 2018. The vehicle, SJK3163S that I was in, was involved in an accident at about 15:15hrs along Ubi Road 1.

At the material time, we were heading towards Paya Ubi Road. Our vehicle was travelling on the left lane of Ubi Road 1. Out of a sudden, an impact and bang on the right of our vehicle. A vehicle, SKH2987S which was travelling on the right lane suddenly cut into our lane to turn left to the said road. After the accident, I wanted to call for police but the driver (a chinese man) of SKH2987S apologised to my colleague and claimed he will private settle and we just need to send to his workshop. He even wrote down his own contact number on a piece of paper. I even took the photo of the scene, showing SKH2987S turning to our lane.

As the vehicle was rented from Global Advance Leasing, we have to report to their respective workshop.

After learning that the driver of SKH2987S twisted his words, I am willing to testify in court if require my attendant.

Signature of Witness : Uicky

Date : 1/6/18

Please be informed that we are instructed to request a statement from your independent witness under oath.

Kindly send us a copy of a witness statement under statutory declaration for our principal's review and consideration.

Thank you.

Final Reminder

Without Prejudice Save As To Costs

Dear Chris and Saw Theng,

We refer to our reminder dated 22.09.2018.

Once again, we enclose a copy of the independent witness statement for your ease of reference.

According to the independent witness, our client was travelling straight at that point in time and his vehicle was being hit by your insured when your insured swerved into our client's lane.

As mentioned earlier, our client's witness is independent and he is willing to testify this matter in Court.

Hence, we sincerely hope that you can give weightage to our client's witness and instruct your appointed surveyors to resolve the matter with us amicably within the next TEN (10) days from the date hereof.

If we do not hear from you or your surveyors within the stipulated timeline, we shall advise our client on the next cause of action.
