Circumstances of Accident

#carpark, Moving forward or reversing into parking lot & Parked, Blue Car SHC8247S, White Car SLS5221D. I was parked at T2 departure having just dropped off my wife. I got back into the car the space behind me was clear. I began to reverse out when the taxi driver drove into the space behind me and left me little room to reverse out our bumpers touched. I got out of my vehicle to check to see if there was any damage and there wasn't to either vehicle. I was going extremely slow due to the congestion that night passing in the lane to my right. The taxi driver wound down his window and complained and shouted i should have seen him in which I explained I didn't have enough time with him jumping into the limited space behind me he left me will hardly any room to manoeuvre. He did not leave his vehicle he did not ask me for my details he knew that it was only a slight bump and that there was very little and or no damage to either vehicle. I was happy with the fact that there was no damage and therefore got back in my car a drove off. I did not report the event because it was not accident in this scenario it could be either party and given there was no damage I did not report and claim for any damage to my car because there wasn't any. I totally refute this claim by this taxi driver he should have got out of his car and gone through the process of swapping details in order to proceed with a claim.
