Dear Mi Mi,

We refer to your below email.

As per your latest email instruction to offer at 20% to TP, please be informed that TP had also rejected our offer (via phone). TP insisted that our Insured had collided to their taxi and must apply chain collision. TP insisted on a 100% claim on their favour under BOLA.

Kindly advise.

Thank you.

Best Regards,

Dear MiMi

There's no response from your loss adjuster.

Your 10% offer is rejected. We attached herewith last vehicle, SKL5426D's sketch plan and statement. According to him, there was a prior collision between your insured vehicle and our taxi. Attached herewith scene photos that show your insured's frontal damage is more severe than its rear.

Please review your position and revert by 31/05/2018.

Dear Sir/Madam

Please refer to our last conversation on 07/09/2017.

According to your insured's report, there was only 4 vehicles involved in the chain collision while QX635R was the first vehicle. Therefore, we opine BOLA S28(b)(i) shall apply. The vehicle behind is 100% liable for the losses incurred by the front vehicle. Please revise your position or confirm to escalate the matter to GIA DRM.
