Dear Gary,

We refer to the subject.

Our insured reiterated that the incident was due to the entire negligence of your client from being stopped and proceeding to drive forward causing the collision.

We have reviewed the matter and viewed your video evidence and we are of the opinion that the event was foreseeable and your driver could have avoided the collision by giving way to our insured.

In view of the above, we regret to inform you that we have our principal's instruction to deny claim.
