Hi Ms Eng

Thank you for your call.

Your insured might not be the proximate caused of the accident but indeed your insured driver did collided onto the rear of our insured vehicle. If you insured driver will to keep a safe following distance and he might not had collided onto the rear of our client's vehicle. Moreover the PIR dated 21.01.2019 showing your insured driver was being charged Inconsiderate driving under Section 65 of the Road Traffic Act Chapter 276.

We spoke and would like to propose on behalf of our insured on

- a) Front portion – against SGP996J NTUC –being charged Inconsiderate driving
- b) Rear portion – against FT3155R AXA-being charges Careless Driving

Pls seek instruction from superior whether its agreeable to above proposal. If we still couldn't come to a conclusion to resolve this matter amicably as such we left with no choice but to forward to Solicitors for further handing on our client instruction.

Thank you & await your reply soonest.

Thank you & Regards
