DESCRIBE CIRCUMSTANCES OF THE ACCIDENT

Prior to the contact with vehicle B, I made a slight contact with Vehicle A. Vehicle A's owner driver came out from the car to check the vehicle, that's when I realised I made contact. He just asked me to be careful and moved on in front of me as the queue of vehicles progressed. The merging of lanes happened on the right hand side of the vehicle, so I moved on as there was a traffic controller in front signalling me to merge to the right.

There after, there was at least <sup>one</sup> car from the other lanes & on my right moved forward and I drove on. Suddenly, there was a slight jerk on my car from the left hand side. I stopped my car went out to check. I saw the driver (Emmanuel) came out and he asked me to relax and said that I was affected by the incident earlier (with vehicle A). Another passenger (female) from the Vehicle B came out & shouted at me, "This is not even our car. You must pay for the car now." I did not respond to her. I spoke to the driver and we took photos of each other's car & IC. We exchanged contact too. I offered to discuss about settlement later. He mentioned he was not moving.
