Brief Details.

On 23/06/2018 at about 0145hrs, I stop my taxi SHA7522P along River valley roadside for the customer to board my taxi. When a red colour car hit onto the rear of my taxi, the driver did not stop his car and drove off. Thus I gave a chase and manage to stop him. I then take photo of his vehicle plate number. His car plate number SLW1978J. He admitted to me that earlier he went for drinking session and he want to do a private settlement. I did not agree to him. There was a cisco police officer who was controlling the traffic assist to called for traffic police and ambulance. When the ambulance arrives, the car driver of SLW1978J drove off again. As I had injured my neck due to the impact, I did not chase him again. I was conveyed to Singapore general Hospital and discharge on the same day. I was given three days of medical leave. I had received a call from traffic police who ask me to file a hit and run accident report for their investigation and to collect my taxi on 28/06/2018 at 1000hrs. I took this two medicine Diclofenac Sodium EC tablet and Omeprazole Capsule given by Singapore General Hospital and after taking the medicine. I felt drowsy and only woke up at 1300hrs. I am unable to make any report regarding the accident with my taxi company as today it was Saturday and my taxi company close after 1230hrs. I do not have the particular of the driver. I am making the police report for investigation.

Above inform for your necessary action.

Thank You.
