Dear Catherine,

We have appointed LKK to be the Single Joint Expert to assess this claim. A copy of the letter of appointment has been sent to you by hand on 20 July 2018. In the said letter, we have requested LKK to advise us on the following:-

- a. Based on the mechanism how this accident happened, your re-inspection of the Plaintiff's vehicle, the documents provided herein, please comments on the disputed items listed in AutoProbe's report;
- b. Based on the mechanism how this accident happened, your re-inspection of the Plaintiff's vehicle, the documents provided herein and review of the disputed items, please recommend what would be the reasonable cost to repair the damages of the Plaintiff's vehicle sustained as a result of this accident;
- c. Based on the evidence, whether it was economical to repair the Plaintiff's vehicle; and
- d. Based on the evidence, your re-inspection and review of the disputed items, the duration (i.e. no. of working days) required to carry out such repairs.

It appears to us by the attachment of your email dated 30 July 2018 that the Plaintiff's vehicle has been scrapped and LKK could not conduct any reinspection. Please let us have your assessment based on paper survey and let us have your answers to questions a to d above.

We look forward to hearing from you soon.

Best regards,

Dear Katherine,

As spoken on the phone earlier, please find attached the letter dated 13 June 2018, contents of which are self-explanatory.

It is worrying that your assignment team did not manage receive the letter despite having sent an email, and sent in a fax which I had called to confirm that it was received a month ago. Perhaps your system should be looked at.

Please do provide for us the report within 7 days, as it is urgently required for the case to proceed forward. Kindly hear from you soon.
