Brief Details

On 07.08.2018 at about 12.32 pm, I went to park my vehicle at the open space carpark located at Duxton Hill. I left the carpark at about 1.40 pm and head straight to my office. When my vehicle was parked at my office parking space, one of my colleague pointed out to me that there is damage to the right side of the rear bumper. I look at the bumper and notice that there are scratches and dents on the bumper. I playback my onboard camera and at about 12.56 pm, while my vehicle was parked at the carpark at Duxton Hill, a white van drove pass my vehicle and it causes my vehicle to slightly move. The driver then stop his van and from the recording, it capture the driver actually taking a glance towards my vehicle before driving off. The driver of the van did not get down from his vehicle or leave any note behind. The recording however did not capture the van make and model or it's registration number. The carpark is controlled by a drop down barrier and there is a CCTV at the exit and entrance of the carpark. The cost of repair for the damage is estimated to $3300+.
