Brief Details.

On 03/09/2018 at about 2000hrs, I was in my husband's car travelling along AYE towards direction of Tuas. We were travelling on the right most lane at that point of time.

Suddenly, 2 cars in front collided. The vehicle in front of us managed to stop in time and my husband also managed to stop in time. After our vehicle stopped, almost immediately, I felt a strong impact coming from the rear. Fortunately, my husband's car did not collided into the car in front.

My husband and I alighted from our vehicle to take a look at what had happened. We saw that a white colour Honda had just collided into the rear of my husband's car. My husband went to talk to the driver and I went about taking pictures of the scene and damages on both vehicles. Subsequently, my husband exchanged particulars with the driver of the Honda. My husband then drove his car to the shoulder to wait

A short while later, EMAS came and towed my husband's car to the carpark of Clementi Woods Park. After which, we waited for our own tow truck to come. After the car was towed away, we then went to stay at the nearby fragrance hotel as we are residing in Johor Bahru and has no means to return home.

Due to the accident, I felt cramp in my abdomen area. However, I did not went to seek medical attention immediately.

On 04/09/2018, at about 1100hrs, I woke up and still felt cramp in my abdomen area. Hence, we went to NUH to seek medical attention. After seeing the doctor, I was given 5 days medical leave while my husband was given 3 days medical leave due to his lower back pain.
