Brief Details.

On 06/08/2018 at about 2100hrs, I last parked my motorcycle with vehicle number FQ1933R at Blk 615 Yishun Ring Road, Open Carpark Lot Number 517. The last time that I seen my motorcycle was on 08/08/2018 at about 0730hrs, and everything was intact.

On 08/8/2018 at about 1915hrs, I went back to where my motorcycle was parked and noticed that my motorcycle was no longer in its usual position (the handlebar was turned). There were damages to my motorcycle as well. I then noticed one white note with contents written in blue ink on my handlebar. It was written by an unknown subject with contact number 98534296, who had claimed to have seen my motorcycle laid down on the ground, and assisted to lift up my motorcycle and prop it back into a standing position. The unknown subject further informed that he believe that my motorcycle had been knocked over by another vehicle, and urged me to sent him a WhatsApp text, so he can send me the photos that he had took of my motorcycle before he had lifted it up.

At the same time, one of my neighbor who usually sits at my void deck approached me and informed that he had witnessed the incident whereby my motorcycle had been knocked over. He informed that the incident happened between 1200 - 1300hrs, whereby he saw one dark coloured vehicle knock down my motorcycle while reversing into the carpark lot beside my motorcycle. He remembered that the dark coloured vehicle has a private hire sticker on it, and the last few digits of the vehicle plate number is 4789J. He further added that the driver did not step out of his vehicle after the incident, and simply left the scene.

After that, I called for the police and one traffic police resource came to scene. He interviewed me for facts and subsequently advised me to head to any police station to lodge a police report about the matter. He had also handed me the case card for the said incident vide F/20180808/0254 under SIO Dylan.
