My car was driving smoothly behind his car when he suddenly brake and there's still some space between his car and the car in front of him. My leg was on the brake pedal when I was behind him when he suddenly stops. I quickly emergency brake and the scratch against the road surface for 3 seconds before hitting onto his car. My speed was around 20km/hr. He came out of his car and realised there were scratches on his car and he claims that the 2 holes on his bumper lower lid was caused by the accident which was impossible. The scratches I admit cause my car plate brake and flow. We exchanged details and move on.

I/We declare the foregoing particulars are true in every respect.
