Brief Details.

On the above mentioned date and time, I was on the way home at the aforesaid location when I saw an ambulance stationary in front of me, therefore I stopped behind the ambulance. Suddenly, the ambulance reversed a bit and I did not move my vehicle as I thought it was just a slight reverse. However, the ambulance suddenly reverse further and I did not have the time to react, I did horned at the ambulance but to no avail. As such, the ambulance rear knocked onto my car's front portion, resulting in an impact causing my number plate to drop off, and the front bumper area parts dropped as well, together with some scratches and dent marks. We then came down from our vehicles and the ambulance driver told me that he reversed as he went to the wrong block. We exchanged particulars as well and I took a few pictures of the car's damage and scene in my mobile phone. We then left the scene. No one was injured at that point of time. I wish to state that the ambulance blinkers was on at that point of time and the road we are travelling on was a one lane road, and the area was not so well-lit. The paramedics also handed me a 'Notice of accident involving SCDF vehicles' form and advised me to lodge a Police report asap as well.
