Dear Alfred,

We refer further to the below email.

We had spoken to the Insured where he provided to us the repairer that is helping him to do a TP claim which is Lai Huat (Meng Kee) Motor Pte Ltd.

We had spoken and was informed by the repairer Lai Huat (Meng Kee) Motor Pte Ltd that they only help Insured do the accident report and they didn't know which workshop the Insured went to file a TP claim. We were only provided with the Insured's video footage as attached.

Now, TP repairer (Transcab) appealed and proposed for a 50/50 settlement in view that, "We do not agreed to your rejection. However we are prepared to settle at 50% in liability as under BOLA S11(e), both drivers have an equal obligation to keep a proper lookout when turning into a common lane from opposite directions."

Upon further review of the Insured video footage, we notice that the Insured was within the leftmost lane that can make a left turn or go straight. The Traffic light at the junction is green for both vehicles but no green arrow light for TP vehicle to make a right turn.

As such, we are of the view that our Insured has the right of way to make a left turn at the junction since the traffic light was on his favour and he was within its lane when turning.

Kindly advise if we maintain our rejection and/or for your further instruction if any.

Thank you.

Best Regards,

Dear Boon Sen,

We refer to the above matter,

We had spoken to the Insured Driver Mr Huang where he disputed on the liability and insisted that the TP driver was at fault.

As such, we had requested for a copy of his video footage to support his version of the accident. Please find attached copy of the video footage for your reference.

Based on the footage, it was observed that the traffic light is green for both Insured and TP when both vehicles made a turn towards the same direction. We are of the view that TP vehicle must give way to our Insured vehicle when making a turn.

In view of the above, we intend to reject the TP claim.

For your approval and/or further instruction please.

Thank you.
