Without Prejudice

Dear Sir/ Madam,

We refer to the subject matter.

Please be informed that our principal had further reviewed the matter and based on the available information at hand, our insured is at stationary while your client making a reverse without checking and cause a hit onto his car's right front side. Therefore, liability is down at your client.

Kindly refer to our insured's statement as attached for your reference.

As such, we have our principal's instruction and that we are unable to look into your client's claim unless there is more evidence submitted.

Thank you.

"Kindly note that this negotiation between parties on this matter is purely on a without prejudice basis with the sole intention of resolving the matter amicably without parties resorting to legal proceedings. No admission of liability, whatsoever, should be deemed / inferred from this negotiation of terms/settlement.

In the event of new evidence being discovered or subsequently produced by either party that will materially affect/influence on the issues of liability/damages, either party is not bound, thereafter, by the negotiation terms/settlement."

Note: We are on work from home arrangement. All correspondence should be made via email. Submission of claim related documents will be in softcopy. Any inconvenience caused is much regretted.

Best Regards,
