Hi Hsiao Tong

Please advise insured that MCF BOLA is an agreement made between insurers. In such chain collisions, the vehicle behind will be 100% liable for the property damage caused to the vehicle in front. It is unfortunate that this should happen to him but we still have to abide by it.

Thanks & Regards,

Dear Sirs,

ACCIDENT INVOLVING SJA 9393H & SHD 4031T & OTHERS ON 10/07/2013

We refer to the above matter.

Please be informed that this is a total 8 vehicles chain collision where our insured was the last vehicle.

We did clarify with insured the nature of the accident and explained to insured the claim fall under MCF BOLA 28. However insured insist that TP had hit onto the front vehicle before insured collided onto TP's vehicle. Insured is the opinion that he is responsible for the rear portion only.

TP insist to settle the matter under MCF BOLA 28: -

C. General Rules and Exclusions for Chain Collision

4. It shall apply:

ii) Regardless whether the damage caused by the impact is serious or minor or whether the impact has caused visible damage.

6. Claim submission where it involves lawyers.

If third party lawyer/workshop/claimant submit combined claim (i.e. both PD & PI), the rear vehicle insurer is to settle PD at 100% (regardless of quantum) and offer to settle for PI (according to liability).

Kindly advise.
