TOP URGENT

Dear Mr Taufik,

We refer to our email below and to our various tele-conversations with regard to your Pre-repair Survey Report which is not ready.

We wish to place on record that you had surveyed our client's vehicle since October 2018 and until now, your Pre-repair Survey Report is still not ready. As such, our client shall claim for all loss of use from the time of the accident until such time when our client is able to consider your recommendations.

We also note that you have failed to revert on the agreed rates for a BMW i8 which is of similar make and model as our client's vehicle. As such, our client has proceeded to rent such a car and shall claim all rental costs accordingly from China Taiping.

All our client's rights are FULLY AND EXPRESSLY RESERVED.

Regards, kim

Dear Mr Taufik,

We spoke a while ago and I confirm that you were the surveyor who surveyed my client's above-captioned Vehicle in October 2018.

You have informed me that you have yet to finalise the Survey report as my client's workshop had informed you that my client has not decided whether to claim a total loss for his vehicle.

For the avoidance of doubt, we are instructed that my client wishes to make a claim for a total loss. Kindly confirm that you concur with this and that you shall proceed to prepare a Total loss Report for the vehicle.

In addition, my client's vehicle is a BMW i8 which rental costs is in the region of $1,500 a day. Before my client proceeds to rent a car of the same make and model, kindly confirm the agreed rental rates of a BMW i8 of the third party Insurance company in this case ie China Taiping Insurance.

We thank you for your attention and look forward to hearing from you soonest and if possible, not later than 31st December 2018.

Best Regards,

Ms Lim Kim Hong
