Re: Fw: Accident Claim Inquiry -- EQ's REF: DM18HO03317/SG //LKK Ref: CC4/EQI18021899/Gpb3s2; COATING INV.pdf;

Hi Janice,

We refer to the above matter & email below from third party claimant.

We have informed third party workshop that the claim was settled at $18,022.34 as per their LOD submitted on 20/08/2019 and we have closed the file on 08/10/2019. Third party workshop had replied that they will settle the towing & LOU with their client. However third party workshop would like to know if their client can claim back the coating fee at $952.80. As per the coating invoice attached, the paint protection work was done in 15 November 2018 before the accident date 03/12/2018 which is less than a month.

Kindly advise if we may consider to settle the coating fee at $952.80 after you have reviewed the matter.

Thank you.

Note: We are on work from home arrangement. All correspondence should be made via email. Submission of claim related documents will be in softcopy. Any inconvenience caused is much regretted.

Hi all,

I'll also like to state my case clearly,

- at the point of accident, my vehicle couldn't start and needed to be towed to the workshop. The total towing fee (receipt given to the workshop on the 3rd December 2018) SGD 120. The workshop told me EQI rejected this claim. How am I supposed to bring my vehicle to the workshop then??

- the total repair downtime was 50 days as the workshop mentioned that the battery was out of stocks. I did not have a vehicle to tie me through that period. Hence my total loss of use is 50 days. Workshop is telling me only 14 days is allowed!!??

- The paint protection coating invoice was also submitted to the workshop for claims submission right after sending the vehicle for repair. Total amount as stated in the invoice attached in the prior email by EQI. Workshop told me EQI rejected the claim as well.

I'm not asking for anything more, simply want to be compensated for the damages done by the other driver, my loss of use, towing fees, and the paint protection which was done prior to the accident.

Hi Janice,

I am seeking your kind assistance in this matter as I am suspecting they mishandled my case and did not submit receipts for towing fees and paint protection for the claims.
If EQI is not cooperating, I would have to file an enquiry on your conduct to FIDREC.

Hi Janice,

Can you send me the itemised list?
Did they submit the towing and car paint protection receipt for the claims?
Also my loss of use was 50 days as the repair took that long. Is it fully covered?
