Brief Details.

On 18/11/18 at about 1245hrs, I was riding my Malaysia motorcycle bearing registration no. JMB2375 along Stevens Road, outside of Mercure Singapura on Stevens. There were 3 lanes in total, and I was travelling on the middle lane. As I approached the traffic junction, I noted that there was a queue of vehicles on the first lane counting from the right, all of them intending to turn into Henderson Road.

I also noted the traffic light to be green, as such I continued to travel without braking. It was then a vehicle suddenly turned very fast and abruptly from an unknown road. I was not able to brake in time, as such my motorcycle collided against the rear right side of his vehicle. Subsequently, I fell off from my motorcycle and lost consciousness. When I awoke, I was seated down by the side of the road, and my motorcycle was also moved to the side of the road.

Subsequently, police arrived at scene, and I exchanged particulars with the driver of the car bearing registration no. SJS1912T, and took pictures of the scene. Ambulance then arrived, and I was then conveyed to Tan Tock Seng Hospital. I felt pains on my right shoulder, as such I was given 7 days of MC from the doctor.

I noted no visible injuries on the other driver and his passenger. I do not have a camera installed on my motorcycle. I am contactable at my Malaysian phone number at +60167768449 too.
