Dear Sukyi,

We refer further to your below email.

Purely for an amicable settlement on a without prejudice basis and without admission of any liability to our Insured's part, our principal is in view of conflicting versions without concrete evidence from both parties. As such, we have our principal's mandate and we proposed to settle your client's claim on a 50/50 basis at a global sum of $3,300.00 (all in).

If agreeable, kindly let the owner sign the attached DV then forward back to us a copy for payment processing.

The above amount is to be made payable to SM AUTOMOTIVE.

Thank you.

"Please note that our above offer and any settlement arising from the above offer are made on a without prejudice basis, and should not be construed as an admission of liability on our part or on the part of our Insured Driver. Terms of such settlement should also not be disclosed in any other related matter(s) in respect of the accident. Our offer made in respect of this present matter is made solely to resolve this matter only. No reference shall be made to this offer or any settlement arising from this offer in any other related matters."

Best Regards,
